

Branches of Government

- Executive
- Legislative
 - Judicial

© Chloe Campbell 2016

Includes:

- Page 1: Government book cover
- Page 2: Branches of Government Tree image
- Page 3: Executive Branch title & image
- Page 4: Executive Branch fill in the blank text
- Page 5: Legislative Branch title & image
- Page 6: Legislative Branch fill in the blank text
- Page 7: Judicial Branch title & image
- Page 8: Judicial Branch fill in the blank text
- Page 9: Three Branches of Government with Constitution Image
- Page 10: Duties of Each Branch Image
- Teacher Answer Key

Judicial Branch

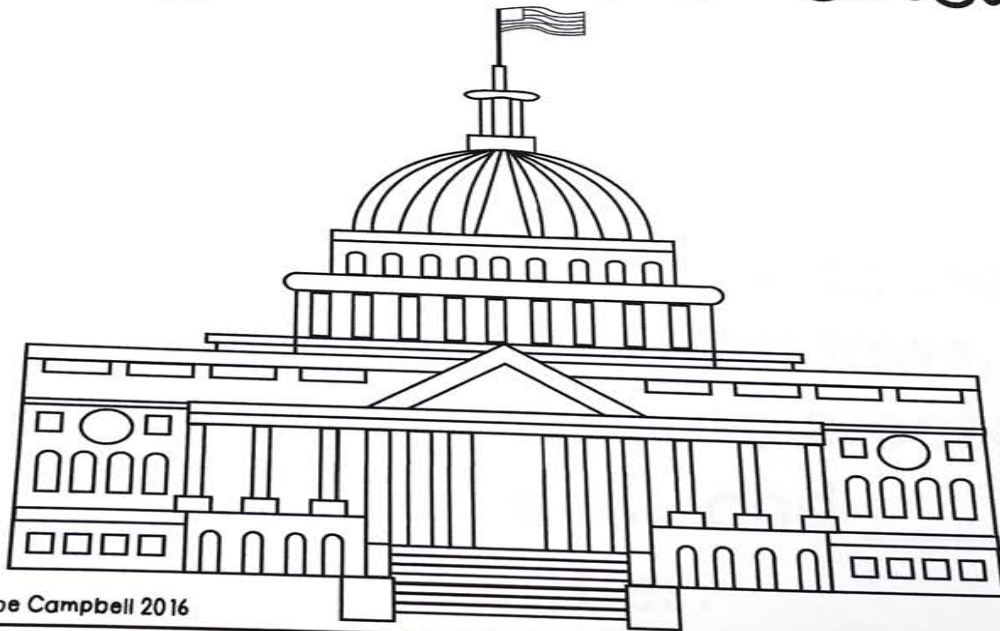

The Judicial Branch is headed by the Supreme _____. It is made up of _____ and courts. They have the power to interpret the _____, review laws, and decide cases that involve the states' _____.

Steps:

1. Cut apart the pages
2. Staple the pages
3. Fill in the blanks
4. Color the book
5. Read the completed book with a friend

Legislative Branch

© Chloe Campbell 2016

Ways to Use:

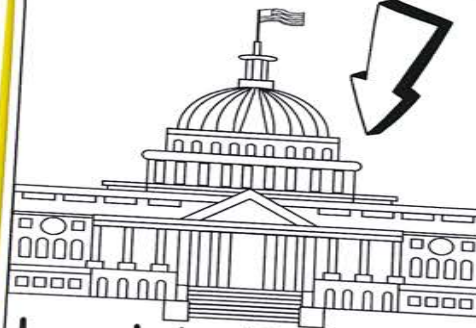

- Whole Group
- Teacher Led Instruction
- Partner Project
- Substitute Plans
- Center Activity
- Take Home Activity with Family

Executive Branch

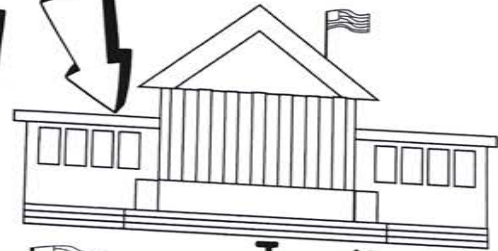

The Executive Branch is headed by the _____. It carries out the federal laws, directs the _____, commands the Armed Forces, and acts as _____ law enforcement officer. It also can veto _____.

Constitution

Legislative

Judicial

Executive

© Chloe Campbell 2016

Purchase now to enjoy a low prep activity!

Students will love
creating their own book to show the three branches of government!